The Next Presidency.

It must be evident (says the Louisville Times) to every intelligent man that either a democrat or black republican will be elected the next President of the United States. We must select between a national conservative democrat and a regular thorough-bred abolitionist of the Giddings and Greeley school .-The black republicans will meet in Philadelphia in WHEREAS, A large number of the people are disfranchised SWANSBORO' MALE AND FEMALE ACADEMY. But there the same isst e presents itself, and either the democratic or black republican party must triumph. The duty of the under such circumstances, is so plain that it requires no argument to point it out. There is surely not 15 an intelligent member of the party whose judgment 20 does not tell him that it is his duty to lay down his arms and heartily co-operate with the Democratic party in preserving the constitution and the Union. Board can be obtained in the place for eight to ten dollars No sane man, who will calmly review the ground, can possibly entertain any hope of the election of Mr. Fillmore. Whatever strength Mr Fillmore may possess is in States where there are overwhelming majorities against the know nothing party. He was nominated by the southern members of the convention, aided by portions of delegations from the north-1 ty, lying on the northwest branch of Cape Fear Riv- ern States, the major part having already bolted from into the contest with not the ghost of a chance to carry a single non-slaveholding State, and with the very slimest sort of hopes for one or two slave States. In all the non-slaveholding States knownothingism, as expounded by the Philadelphia conmill-stone of democracy and the nether mill-stone of this city on the 12th of June next, when a new platvention, is fated to be crushed between the upper anti-slavery. The only hope of the abolitionists of the North is to throw the election into the House, where their chanpared to fill orders for all varieties of PEACH, APPLE, ces of success are the best. The following article from the Cincinnati Gazette, an organ of both knownothingism and abolitionism, fully confirms us in " We do not believe the ticket will meet with popular favor in the free States, at least not for the present. The nominations have been made too soon .-The presidential canvass cannot open with activity and spirit until the democratic party have held their convention and named their men. The democratic convention will be held in June, and the republican convention will be held about the same time. "When the three parties have their candidates in the field, then we expect to witness a sharp and active canvass. The American party in the South will and in the North the republicans and Americans will have to meet the same enemy. If they unite upon one ticket of their own, the result may be, and probably will be, an unparalleled democratic triumph." * * * * * * * weeks-must be charged to account of the late Philadelphia K. N. National Convention. It was in the course of my destiny to be in attendance at both the Council and Convention, albeit, I eschew any membership-relation to the order of the "dark lantern." Well, for eight days (and nights) we had a time there, and came out tobacco-smoked, and fragrant with the fumes of whiskey and other strong drinks. I do not mean to bore you with details, but the way delegates were manufactured and bought and sold and the whole thing finally cut and dried by a few of the sharp ones, put an end to my faith in the virtue of political conventions. Suffice it to say that, after numerous bolts and threatenings to bolt, Mr. Fillmore, opposed by over two thirds of the delegates of his own State, and by more than two thirds of the K. N. members of the New York Legislature and New York State Officers, was nominated for the Presidency, getting 179 votes, cast by 73 delegates; in four instances a single person, and three of them not delegates, casting the whole vote of a State. Andrew Jackson Donelson, who, as editor of the Union, in former days, "pitched into" Mr. Fillmore not a little, was named for Vice President.

Well, these nominations being made, the question arises-" What is to come of them?" Manifestly, I think, the greatest triumph for the Democratic party which that party has ever known-that is, if they nominate their best men. My reasons for thinking thus are-first, the secession of ten Northern States from the Convention before the nomination, two of those States, Massachusetts and Rhode Island, having subsequently, through their K. N. State Councils, repudiated the nominations; as all the other seceding States will. Second, because New York is deeply disaffected towards the nominations, thrust upon her against her decided wish, and will, therafore, go into the new Convention called to meet in form and new candidates will be presented. Third, "straight Whig" stripe, as for instance, the Philanational man to the presidency, and, by a decisive repudiate Donelson. Not a Know-Nothing paper in Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Connecticut, or

Rhode Island hoists or commends the ticket. In our own city and State the disaffection extends to the Democratic and Free Soil portions of the Order, and to a number of presses. The Albany State Register, heretofore regarded as the organ of the Order, in this State, if not of the country, is out flatfooted against the nominations-as a betrayal of the American party into the hands of a few whigs and of the South. The Register calls it a straight whig pro-slavery ticket. The New York Evening Mirror, which worked for Fillmore's nomination in 1852, says it cannot go him now if he has taken the Know-Nothing oaths. That he has taken them is beyond doubt. General Scroggs, of Buffale, N. Y., State delegate at large in the Philadelphia Convention, declared openly at Philadelphia that he, assisted by others, administered the oaths to Mr. Fillmore, in

Mr. F.'s parlor, in Buffalo, in January, 1855. A word as to these oaths. The 1st absorbs and blots out the individuality of the members-he is henceforward to roll into and work in the lump of the Order, like any integral part of a pill, just as the leading powers direct. The 2d pledges the members set of electors in each of the States, nearly, if not to support fellow members before and above all othquite, every northern State can be carried against er men, without any reservation whatever. The the democratic party. It, on the other hand, the 3d pledges the members to support for office and to Americans and republicans run each an electoral give office to only third degree members. No wonder that outside Whigs or others refuse to work for candidates who are solemnly sworn to recognize and give office to none but Order-men of the third degree.

Now a word as to the June 12th Convention .-This is called by the ten States seceding at Philadelto select a President whose principles are opposed to phia. DIPLOMATIC DIFFICULTY .- Information was receivstanding been Col. Jackson, our Minister resident at Vienna, and the the Austrian Government. A cor respondent says:

"The misunderstanding has been caused by the arrest and imprisonment of an American citizen named Spear, who, after seven months close confinement, during which he was not permitted to communicate in any way with even his minister or consul, was tried on the 31st of March 1854, by a secret and unknown tribunal, convicted of treason, and sentenced to ten years labor in irons in the trenches at Therisienstadt in Bohemia. Mr. Jackson, on the 4th of February, demanded a properly certified copy of the testimony said to have been used in the convicmost exposed points in the city.
